CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE FOR THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE ZIMBABWE LAND COMMISSION

The Zimbabwe Land Commission Commissioners, Secretary, Mr P. Mawire and Secretariat recognise His Excellency the President of the Republic of Zimbabwe, Cde. Dr. E.D. Mnangagwa, for his inclusive approach and commend him for officiating at the 2026 Recognition of Top Women Leadership Awards held in Harare, where women from various sectors were honoured for exceptional leadership, patriotism, resilience and distinguished contribution towards National Development in line with Vision 2030.

The Commission is pleased to congratulate the Chairperson, Commissioner Tendai R.W. Bare (Ms.), who was among the outstanding women recognised at this prestigious event for excellence and leadership. The awards celebrated women whose dedication and service continue to transform communities and drive Zimbabwe's socio-economic growth in areas such as Governance, Tourism, Law, Health, Academia, Philanthropy and Community Empowerment.

Under her stewardship, the Commission continues to make significant strides in executing its mandate, promoting transparency, fairness, accountability, and sustainable land governance for the benefit of all Zimbabweans.

The honour not only celebrates Commissioner Bare's remarkable achievements but also reflects the values of integrity, diligence, and excellence that she continues to champion within the Zimbabwe Land Commission and beyond.

As a trailblazing leader, the Chairperson's accomplishment serves as an inspiration to women and girls across the country, demonstrating the transformative impact of visionary leadership and dedicated service to the nation. It also speaks to progress on gender.

The Commission joins the nation in celebrating this well-deserved recognition and wishes Commissioner Bare continued success as she leads the Zimbabwe Land Commission in advancing its mandate and contributing to Zimbabwe's development aspirations at all levels.

Congratulations, Makorokoto, Amhlophe!!!
